RE: Report of the Nominations Committee

The Past-President is charged with chairing the Nominations Committee. I received nominations for President-elect and new council members that were solicited in the fall 2008 mailing. After making sure that the candidates nominated would be willing to serve if elected, I then contacted the other members of the committee by e-mail in late December, 2008. We then agreed on a final slate of two nominees for President-Elect and four nominees for the two at-large positions on the Council. The elections were conducted via electronic voting as well as by mailed-in ballots. Richard Olmstead was elected President-Elect, and Chelsea Specht and Alison Miller were elected to the Council.

I am grateful to the other members of the committee, namely Jocelyn Hall, Jan Barber, Seung-Chul Kim, and Michael Vincent.

Sincerely, Paul E. Berry, Chair, Nominations Committee
